

I hope you will honor the Indiana State Law regarding Telephone Privacy

Last year, my husband and I received unsolicited telephone calls repeatedly, even after we would request to be placed on the company's "don't call back" list. Now, these telemarketing calls are few and far between.

The FCC should not be allowed to violate the law, any law.

Thank you for your consideration; have a great day.

Kathy Ann Porter